Due to the special focus of this exhibit, photography is not eligible. Entrants must be 18 years or older. Artwork created under the supervision of an instructor is not eligible. Submitted artwork must have been executed in the last three years and must be available for the duration of the exhibit. Juror: We are pleased to announce that the juror for the 2014 exhibit is CHARLES FROELICK, owner and director of Froelick Gallery. Charles Froelick began his career with contemporary art in 1988 while pursuing his BFA at the University of North Texas. His art history classes led him to a museum internship and gallery jobs. While working for Hiram Butler Gallery in Houston he decided that he would stay in the gallery world. In 1991 he moved to Portland to work with Jamison Thomas Gallery, and in 1995 he opened Froelick Gallery. His Gallery represents and exhibits about 35 artists from around the country, most from the Pacific Northwest. He believes that the reputation of his gallery relies on the strength of the artists' work, and the integrity of his business practices. His monthly gallery practice centers around presenting solo and group exhibitions at his gallery, and his long-term endeavors include placing his represented artists work into museum, civic, private and academic collections and assisting the critical discourse surrounding their work. Froelick Gallery has successfully worked with institutions such as the Smithsonian National Museum of the American Indian, the Whitney Museum of American Art, The Portland Art Museum, and The Museum of Fine Arts, Houston to acquire and exhibit artists' works.

- AWARDS:
